

DisplayUser

An interface for displaying list of users in the list.

Docs

Class that holds user data.

.ctor

This is a default constructor.

.ctor

This constructor sets the properties and the value entered in the parameter of the constructor

This constructor takes in user information [Id, Name, Address, Gender, Religion] and returns

User information accordingly as a string.

ID

This is the id of user.

Name

This property is the Name of user.

Address

This property is the Address of user

Gender

This property is the gender of user

Religion

This property is the country where the user comes from

DisplayUser

This method adds the new user to the list and also displays the user on the console.

MetaData

This class holds all the implementation of getting information about the metadata.

GetDocs

This method returns all the description and information in the assemblies illustrated by the default attribute.

.ctor

Attribute Constructor

It accepts three overloads. [description, input and output]

It returns the value of each property.

Description

Attribute Description property.

Input

Attribute Input property

Output

Attribute output property.